

Browning Amphitheatre is conveniently located on the COTA bus line.

IMPORTANT DETAILS

- An Iliad will run approximately 100 minutes, with no intermission.
- Recommended for ages 13+, due to strong language and graphic depictions of war.
- Venue capacity is limited, offering plenty of room for space between parties. Volunteers and CATCO staff will be present for assistance.
- Physical tickets will not be sold at the Amphitheatre; however, you can purchase tickets electronically by using the CbusArts app or visiting www.CbusArts.com. Everyone who enters the Amphitheatre will be required to show proof of purchase.
- We encourage you to bring blankets and/or lawn chairs. We will designate the first couple of rows for blankets only, ensuring good sight lines for everyone.
- Patrons are not allowed backstage and may not have any interaction with the actor, musician, or stage manager.
- No coolers and no alcoholic beverages are permitted in the Amphitheatre.
- As a courtesy to the actors and other patrons, children under six, including infants, are not permitted in the Amphitheatre. Pets, except service animals, are not permitted.
- The Browning Amphitheatre is wheelchair accessible. There are paved sidewalks from parking garages and lots that lead directly to the Amphitheatre.
- Safety protocols are subject to change dependent on new CDC, State of Ohio, and/or Actors Equity Association recommendations.

CAMPUS PARKING Rates vary, but you can expect to pay around $9 for your Iliad parking garage, or $.75 cents per hour at a city meter. Volunteers and signage will be located on the sidewalks to assist you.
